MAGNESS NOW ON PRISON SHIP.

Charles Joseph Magness, alias Charles Hartlove, husband of Mrs. Ada Gorman Magness, daughter of the late U. S Senator A. P. Gorman, is now behind the prison bars of the U. S. ship Lancaster, lying at League Island navy yard, Philadelphia, where two years ago the sailor-musician enlisted for a term of three years in the service of the navy. Today the Navy Department will begin the preparation of charges against Magness, and they will be forwarded to the naval authorities at League Island, where Magness will be tried.

In the meantime Mrs. Magness, wife of the deserter, will make every effort to move the "powers that be" in Washington and endeavor to secure a pardon for her husband, whom she believes to be guiltless of any crime. Miss Georgianna Kappler, of Baltimore, is willing to show Mrs. Magness that the letters which she has are genuine and that they were written to her while Magness was attentive to Miss Gorman.

Magness, or Charles T. Hartlove, as he is registered on the prison record aboard the Lancaster, reached the League Island navy yard about 10.45 yesterday morning accompanied by a detective of Louisville. There were no marine guards and Magness was not manacled.

Magness' wife will go to Philadelphia as soon as her mission in Washington is completed. She may reach there today. She has said she would go to prison with her husband, but while she will be allowed to visit him while he is a prisoner on the Lancaster, she will be under the same restrictions as visitors, who see other prisoners. When she visits the ship, Magness will be, called from the "brig" and on the deck in plain view of scores of marines, sailors and busy officers, their conversation will be carried on.

SUICIDE OF INSANE MAN.

A. F. George, of Swanton, near Oakland, Md., during a temporary fit of insanity yesterday afternoon set fire to his barn and dwelling and then proceeded to the house of his son, who lives a short distance from him, and saturated the beds with oil and then set them on fire. He kept every one away from the flames with a revolver, but by heroic measures the dwellings were saved, while the barn was totally consumed.

Mr. George then proceeded to his own home, placed the revolver to his breast, and pulled the trigger, the bullet piercing his heart and killing him instantly.

Mr. George was a prominent politician, and served several terms in the Maryland legislature, and until lately was inspector of rural free delivery mail routes in Illinois and Indiana. He was also a prominent member of the Farmers' Grange and a Sunday-school worker.

ROBBED OF DIAMONDS.

Mrs. Charlotte Tracy, who conducts a boarding house at 208 Indiana avenue northwest Washington, yesterday morning asked the police to arrest Allen Lempke who she alleged had drugged and robbed her of $3,000 worth of diamonds.

Six hours later Central Office Detective Berman arrested Lempke in New York. With the exception of a $500 diamond ring, the detective recovered all the jewels.

Mrs. Tracy says she accepted a glass of whisky from Lempke late Saturday night, and immediately after drinking the liquor she became unconscious. When she recovered yesterday morning her jewelry was missing and Lempke had disappeared. The valuables were in a small chamois bag attached to the woman's clothing. He is alleged to have also removed several valuable brooches from the woman's clothing and to have pilfered a bureau drawer, in which were secreted several gold bracelets and a watch and fob. Lempke was a boarder in Mrs. Tracy's home.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Andrew J. Hennessy, a tailor, of Portsmouth, shot and killed his wife and then killed himself yesterday morning. Jealously is said to have been the cause of the crime.

Hennessy married one of Gosport's prettiest girls and was devoted to her. She received more attention at the hands of other men than he thought proper, and he protested. She disregarded his injunctions and continued to receive the attentions of the others openly. A fortnight ago, it is stated, he took her from one of her admirers at the point of a pistol. He besought her to return home and she went with him, but they quarreled shortly afterward, and she asked the protection of the court, saying he had threatened her life.

Saturday Hennessy heard fresh rumors about his wife. He settled up all his affairs, paid his debts, closed his shop and spent Saturday night investigating the rumors. After his investigation he armed himself. Yesterday morning he visited his wife's home and shot her through the forehead as she sat in a rocker, killing her instantly. He then turned the pistol on himself, dying 15 minutes afterward.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THE anxiety of the republicans concerning the fate of their presidential candidate is reaching an acute stage. They are resorting to everything in their power to force back a tide that is steadily rising against them, and the president and his cabinet are using all their influence to recover ground that Mr. Taft has lost. The latest exhibition of distress is the appeal of Mr. Roosevelt to workingmen to support his favorite. He undertakes in a three-column letter to persuade the intelligent mechanics of the country that unless Taft is elected starvation will stare them in the face, the wealth of the country be destroyed, and the progress of the last half century must stand for naught. These "calamity howlings," as some have aptly termed them, are set forth in a letter written by Mr. Roosevelt to P. H. Grace, of Binghamton, N. Y., a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. In his letter appealing to all workingmen to vote for Mr. Taft, Mr. Roosevelt says that the republican candidate has been on the side of the workingman in fearlessly exposing and attacking the abuses of injunction. After citing several cases in which he declares Mr. Taft rendered decisions in favor of workingmen in damage suits, the president refers to the fact that the next president will probably choose a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court. "If Mr. Taft is not elected," says the president in concluding his letter to Mr. Grace, "a period of industrial chaos and business bad times will ensue, in which the workingman will suffer far more than any other class. They are the people who, more than any other, will pay the penalty." We prefer to believe that the workingmen of the United States are not to be deluded by the president who is endeavoring to scare them into voting against their intelligent convictions.

ONE of the many amusing things of the present political campaign is the degree of gall manifested by the men who have deserted the democratic party for their own individual pecuniary interests, when they assert the democratic party has degenerated, instead of themselves, because the Denver platform is pledged to throw a few safeguards around the deposits of both rich and poor in the "guarantee of bank deposits." These pretenders say the party of Jefferson, Jackson, Calhoun, Benton, Tilden and Cleveland cannot be entrusted with the control of the affairs of this country by reason of a lack of intelligence to conduct its money and banking matters. The same men denounce the leaders of democracy, because these leaders resent the arbitrary interference of the federal judiciary with the affairs of the several states. Yes; there are degenerate democrats but the chief of these are the deserters referred to.

SENATOR DEPEW, of New York, will not speak in Virginia, as had been announced. The republican headquarters in New York received a wire Saturday saying the senator has canceled his Virginia trip in order to devote his time to campaigning in the middle west. When it was announced that Mr. Depew was to be sent to Virginia on a stumping trip it was said that the republicans were at their wits end, and that the few of that party in Virginia wanted to know what in the mischief they had done to be so afflicted. Now they will breathe easier.

EUGENE DEBS, in the red special, ended his phenomenal tour of the east with a big meeting at Baltimore last week and started westward, so that his itinerary parallel that of Judge Taft through Indiana Thursday, the same audiences often hearing both candidates. Leaders of both the old parties were astounded at the evidence of socialist gains in many sections shown in various polls. This is a most alarming state of affairs and bodes no good to the country. Socialism is but one step removed from anarchism, and after that the judgment.

ON his way east last week Mr. Bryan told his audiences that the only thing that could now defeat him was the use of money at the polls and that the republicans were preparing to buy the election of Taft in doubtful states. The republicans seem willing to accept what Mr. Bryan said as true and are now trying their best to make the purchase.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 26.

Characterizing President Roosevelt's recent letter to Senator Knox on the labor issue as a "diatribe of abuse and misrepresentation, an exhibition of impotent rage and disappointment, and an awful descent from the dignity of the high office of president of the United States," Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, issued a 5,000 word statement in reply thereto today. The statement, which will appear as the leading article over his signature in the forthcoming November number of the American Federationist, will be circulated in large quantities among the workingmen of the country during the closing days of the campaign. Summing up his argument against the president's attitude, Mr. Gompers says: "The fact of the matter is that President Roosevelt, having made Injunction Judge Taft the candidate of the republican party for president, and seeing that the 'labor vote' which so often has been corralled, diverted, and perverted by the politicians, is now aroused and determined to deliver its own vote; that the toilers will not be cajoled, deceived or brow-beaten, has become desperate and angry, and in his anger, by the worst exhibition of demagogism, tries to instill into the employers and business men the fear that their property and business are in danger if a 'square deal' implied by equality before the law and human freedom, are accorded to the workers with all other citizens. It is an exhibition of impotent rage and disappointment and an awful descent from the dignity of the high office of the president of the United States. No one but himself will be deceived as to the purpose of President Roosevelt." After reading Mr. Samuel Gomper's statement, President Roosevelt caused the following to be given out at the White House today: "Mr. Gompers quotes from the president's correspondence with him about George W. Alger's book, 'Moral Overstrain.' The president has distributed copies of that book to judges, labor leaders and others, and he now earnestly wishes that Mr. Gompers would read this same Mr. Alger's admirable article on 'Taft and labor' in McClure's Magazine for September, 1908. It is the most effective exposure of Gomper's position that has been produced, and ever since its appearance, the president has been in close touch with Mr. Alger, in this whole injunction matter."

In an interview, Willard R. Green, a railroad contractor, reveals the inside history of the Phillipine railroad contract, so long a puzzle to the people of this country and challenges the Roosevelt administration to disprove his charges. He asserts that William H. Taft, his brother Henry Elihu Root and Wayne McVeagh figured in a secret deal by which the full control of railroad interests on the Island of Luzon, present and future, passed into the hands of a combination they represent. Mr. Green says that after he had spent $25,000 he discovered that Messrs Root, Taft, McVeagh and their friends had so skillfully manipulated things that the railroad contract could only go to a certain bidder. He appealed to William H. Taft to change the terms of the contract so that there could be honest competitive bidding. His answer was a flat refusal.

The U. S. Supreme Court today set January 4 for hearing of arguments in the case of the "commodities clause" of the Hepburn railroad rate act.

In order to try and win back the disaffected negro vote Mr. Roosevelt will issue an order reinstating Mingo Sanders, late of the Twenty-fifth United States Infantry.

The War Department has been advised of the death of Brig. Con. Harry L. Haskell, retired, which occurred at San Diego, Cal., last night.

A score or more of the ancient sacred vessels, relics of incalculable value and many hundreds of years old, the loot in the mysterious robbery at the Cathedral of Limoges, in France, which months ago created a sensation abroad, are believed to have been brought to this country by the thieves. The local police think the stolen goods are in Washington.

WILL NOT VOTE.

Until the constitution of the United States shall contain in its text a recognition of the supreme kingship of God through Jesus Christ and of the existence of His code of law, all true Covenanters, as the members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in this country style themselves, will refuse to vote on election day and will continue to owe allegiance to no government save the spiritual communion of Christ.

This tenet of the sect, and the reasons why this tenet is held, were expounded yesterday by Rev. F. M. Foster, pastor of the Third Reformed Presbyterian Church in New York.

ARREST OF NIGHT RIDERS.

Sensations came thick and fast at Camp Nemo, Tenn., when soldiers, sheriff's posses and private citizens, who have mobilized for the purpose of hunting the murderers of Capt. Quentin Rankin, rounded up more than fifty prisoners, all charged with being members of the secret clan of night riders in the Reelfoot Lake secton, where Capt. Rankin lost his life.

These arrests are the basis for the statement that all but five of the masked mob who took Capt. Rankin and Col. Taylor from the hotel at Walnut Log, are now guarded by soldiers or are securely located in jails in five counties bordering the scene of the shooting.

The most surprising event was the detention of J. F. Carpenter, prominent attorney of Union City, who was imprisoned in the guard house, charged with having been in conspiracy with night riders who decoyed Capt. Rankin and Col. Taylor to the hotel at Walnut Log under pretence of meeting a purchaser for some of the land which had been in dispute and which was claimed by the squatters.

PASTOR BARRED FROM CHURCH

Rev. W. J. Houck, recently appointed pastor of the Allison Memorial Church, of York, Pa., by the annual conference, to succeed Rev. R. B. Roades who had served the congregation for the past four years, had the doors and windows barred against him yesterday.

When the new pastor arrived to begin the services of the day he found everything fastened, and was compelled to leave. The congregation has nothing personal against their new pastor, as they say, but they insist that Rev. Washington, presiding elder of the district, meet the official members of the church and explain why he recommended the changing of Rev. Roades.

The postoffice at Brentsville, Prince William county was robbed Friday night of $180, including money and stamps. The postoffice is located in the residence of Postmaster F. E. Bell. The burglar also entered the bedroom of Mrs. Bell and carried off a gold watch belonging to her, Mrs. Bell, her small children and her mother were alone in the house, but they were not molested. Mr. Bell was away from home.

Charles Francis Adams spoke in Richmond Saturday night in opposition to Bryan and in support of Taft. The Academy of Music, in which he spoke, was crowded. Many ladies were present. Egbert G. Leigh, former president of the chamber of commerce, presented the speaker. While not agreeing with Taft on many questions, and disagreeing with him outright on a multitude of others, Mr. Adams said he regarded him as far the superior of either Roosevelt or Bryan, so far as the presidency is concerned, and for that reason he would vote for the republican candidate. He severely criticised the "theatrical" administration of President Roosevelt, but declared the election of Taft would break the spell, while the election of Bryan would prove a greater evil than even Roosevelt. He favored tariff for revenue only, but declared neither Taft nor Bryan, as president, would be able to get an remedial legislation through Congress.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 26. Strength became more pronounced toward the end of the first hour and in the latter part of that period a number of stocks moved up 1 to 2 points. Other stocks made fractional gains. The market quieted down after the first hour and during the last half of the forenoon there was little feature to the trading. Some of the speculative element on the floor sold a few stocks, causing slight recessions in prices.

Today's Telegraphic News

Enormous Crowd Anticipated.

New York, Oct. 26.—Soaking wet from a flying auto trip through the rain into Jersey Wm. J. Bryan returned to the Waldorf-Astoria today for a reception of the Womans Democratic Club and was heartily kissed by two women while 700 others looked on. Foremost among the throng who saw his blushes was Mrs. Bryan and she laughed heartily as her husband, covered with embarrassment, deftly ducked away from a third woman.

New York, Oct. 26.—Anticipating that enormous crowds will seek to hear Wm. J. Bryan in his address at Madison Square Garden tonight, Police Commissioner Bingham has ordered the attendance of the greatest detail of police ever sent to any political meeting in this city. Under Chief Inspector Cortright, eight captains, fourteen lieutenants, twenty-nine sergeants and more than 800 patrolmen, on foot, on bicycles and mounted, will try to stem the tide of humanity. That serious results may follow the huge crush is indicated by the order that the chief police surgeon with six aides is ordered to accompany the police detail.

Because a train left on time, Mr. Bryan enjoyed a long trolley ride through Jersey City this morning and was forced to make a thirteen-mile trip in an automobile, in order to keep an engagement at Paterson, N. J. The candidate left the home of Nathan Straus, where he spent the night in time to catch the train, but was held up by the traffic. Owing to the rain, the candidate was well coated with mud when he reached the "silk city." Bryan went to Paterson to aid Congressman Hughes in his fight for re-election and his speech there was entirely on the labor question, repeating his criticism of President Roosevelt. Bryan returned to New York immediately afterward and went to the Waldorf-Astoria where he addressed the women's democratic club, making an appeal for purity in politics. This afternoon he will make an automobile tour of Westchester county, winding up with three big meetings in Manhattan tonight.

Crapsey's Theological Ideas.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 26.—Foreshadowing the birth of a new religion growing out of the ideals of the past, Rev. Algernon Crapsey, deposed rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Rochester, N. Y., addressed a large audience here in Horticultural Hall yesterday. Following the thought that the idea of God originated in nature and exists in nature at all times, Dr. Crapsey traced the conception from the mythological worship of Jupiter to the Jehovah of the Semitic races, and thence to Christ, of whom he said:

"Christ was the intellectual child of Elijah, Isaiah and the other thinkers of his nation, and was so filled with his own divinity that it shone as light and radiated his garments. When he died men said 'this was God' and began to gather myths about his memory and to make of that memory a divinity. Then the philosophers made of the simple man of Galilee an emanation from God. The theological Christ was never the God of the common people, and the central worship became the worship of Mary, the mother of Jesus, succeeded by the thought that man could regain the favor of God through the intercession of saints." The conceptions of the past, said Dr. Cropsey, were but working theories concerning the world of mankind and the new divinity at the threshold is the divinity of common man.

The American Fleet.

Manila, Oct. 26.—The sailors of the American fleet will not be permitted shore leave after 10 o'clock at night, nor allowed to drink water from native wells when they return from Yokohama and Amoy, according to a rule promulgated today by Rear Admiral Harber. The first squadron will reach here Nov. 1 from Yokohama and the second squadron under command of Admiral Emery, from Amoy on November 8. Cholera is expected to be completely stamped out by the time the squadron arrives, but no chances will be taken with the men.

Amoy, Oct. 26.—Guards will be stationed every ten feet along the road from the landing wharf to Namporto Temple, when the second squadron of the American fleet arrives at Amoy Friday.

One hundred guards will be at every entrance to the grounds where the festivities in honor of the fleet will be held and each building in the grounds will be protected by 13 men and no Chinese will be admitted to the grounds without passes.

These precautions are being taken as a result of a discovery of a revolutionary plot which, though aimed against the high Chinese officials, the committee on arrangements feared might include the Americans.

Alleged Murderer.

San Jose, Cal., Oct. 26.—Wm. Hatfield, accused of being James Dunham, the alleged murderer of his entire family here in 1896, is in jail here today, after being brought from Sherman, Texas, the scene of his arrest. Five thousand people awaited the arrival of the train on which Hatfield was expected and a lynching appeared imminent. To avoid the mob, the train was stopped outside the depot and the man was hurried to jail in an automobile. Hatfield maintain his innocence. Sheriff Langford and deputy sheriff Buffington of San Jose, both of whom knew Dunham, say that Hatfield is not the same man.

Trial of Night Riders.

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 26.—With the authorities pressing for speedy action, a special grand jury here today is taking up the cases of 51 alleged night riders who are accused of having been part of the mob that lynched Captain Rankin a week ago. It is predicted that more than a score of them will hang.

The whole section is aflame with denunciation and support of the accused and a conflict between the opposing factions is probable.

Fearing that an attempt may be made to raid the militia camp at Hamburg where the captured night riders are detained, on additional guard of 75 men were placed on duty today.

Three Suicides.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 26.—Three suicides, all of them well-known persons, occurred at almost the same hour here today. Mrs. James Harned, a society woman, cut her throat with a razor; A. F. George, of Swanton, burned his barn and residence and then shot himself, and A. L Liston, a constable, shot himself because of remorse over the killing of a man he tried to arrest.

England and Venzeuela.

London, Oct. 26.—England is today preparing to deal with an iron hand with President Castro and the Venezuelan government, over the seizure of a British ship and the imprisonment of its crew. The British minister at Caracas has been requested to make a full report of the matter, pending the receipt of which, the foreign office will make no move. If the minister reports the action as another of Venezuela's international affronts, a demand for the release of the prisoners and a large indemnity will be made forthwith. If the demand is refused, England will send a squadron of ships to Venezuela and enforce her demands without unnecessary delay.

Willemstad, Curacao, Oct. 26.—President Castro is standing firmly by his decree of May 14, prohibiting the transhipment of goods for Venezuelan ports at Curacao, according to today's advices from Caracas. Castro's determination is evinced in his answer to the second Netherlands note, returned more than a month ago, but just made public. Castro asks the Netherlands to send an accredited agent to Curacao to arrange a settlement of difficulties between the two governments. The Venezuelan government, in anticipation of a demonstration by Holland on November 1, has completed the preparations for the defense of La Guayra. The guns in the forts in mountains above La Guayra have been put in readiness and all the forts are heavily stocked with ammunition.

Will Plead Insanity.

New York, Oct. 26.—Captain Peter C. Hains, who shot and killed Wm. E. Annis for alleged betrayal of his wife, will plead insanity. This developed today when the army officer, with his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, was arraigned before Justice Garretson in the Supreme Court at Flushing, L. I.

That Mrs. Claudia Hains confessed intimimacy with Annis was indicated by a letter which John F. McIntyre, counsel for the Hains brothers, gave out today. Omitting certain sentences which he said no newspaper would print the letter read.

Dear Billy:—Don't come down Monday evening. Everything is over now between Peter and myself. He has found out everything. I am going to Boston, and will send you my address. Want to see you and tell you all about it, Am almost crazy. Good by.

CLAUDIA.

Captain Hains was the first to be arraigned. His plea of "not guilty" was accepted. Justice Garretson havidg disallowed the demurrer by Mr. McIntyre as to the indictment against T. Jenkins Hains, he, too, was ordered to plead to the first degree charge. Just what the line of defense will be in his case has not been deloped.

Trial of the Ice King.

New York, Oct. 26.—Interest in the trial of "Ice King" Morse and Alfred H. Curtis, the former president of the National Bank of North America, centers around the expected appearance today of Mrs. Katherine Gelshenen-Braker, widow of the former president of the Garfield National Bank, who has been subpoenad by the government to testify regarding her transactions with Morse by which she is said to have cleared about $39,000. Mrs. Gelshenan, who recently became the wife of Henry J. Braker, is the only one of Morse's alleged followers who broke ahead of the game at the end of the banker's dealings. Her friendship with Morse brought her name prominently into the Morse-Dodge divorce scandal and the subsequent trial and conviction of "Abe" Hummel, the notorious divorce lawyer, on the charge of subornation of perjury in the attempt to annul the marriage of Morse and Mrs. Dodge.

The Brandenburg Case.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 26.—Until substantial assurances are given by District Attorney Jerome that Earl B. Brandenburg will not be jailed in the metropolis, the New York writer held here for alleged forgery of the Cleveland letter will not return to Gotham without a legal battle in Dayton. Brandenburg through, his attorneys, took that stand in court today. By agreement, the charge against the writer of being a fugetive from justice was continued pending such a guaranty from Jerome. Armed with abench warrant, but without extradition papers, Detective Fitzzimmons, of New York, is here to take Brandenburg back whenever Jerome gives the promise demanded. Dayton friends of Brandenburg insist that if the writer can be detained here until after election the charge against him in New York will be dropped.

Unwritten Law.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—Setting up the plea of the unwritten law, Mrs. Nancy Murrill was acquitted of a charge of murdering her rival, Miss Mary Terry, in the Circuit Court at Jackson yesterday. The trial was remarkable in that men, women and children attended the sessions of the court each day and applauded testimony favorable to the defence.

LETTER TO J M PETTIT.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: Mr. Frank Robinson, Titusville, Pa., bought Devoe with a good deal of feeling against the whole tribe of mixed paints. Our agents there, Messrs. Kernochan & Co, got him to do it. He says:

I am more than pleased with the job. I had one-third of the paint left-over; I know of several other jobs, a year old or more, painted with Devoe, that are wearing well.

What a pity we have to all go through the same school, to find out what paint to put on a house! Experience teaches. Isn't there any easier way to learn?

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

The Persian revolutionists of the Azerbaijan province will resist the territorial grab on the part of the Russian Cossacks, who are reported as having crossed the Persian frontier.

With his alibi mensced by a new witness, Theodore Whitmore, who is accused of the murder of his wife, Helena, in Lampblack Swamp, at Harrison, N. J., last Christmas night, was placed upon his second trial at Jersey City today.

The invasion of northern Persia by Russian Cossacks is believed by the English foreign office to foreshadow the permanent occupancy of a part of the Azerbaijan province by the czar and to be a serious menace to the Balkan peace plans.

Vice Chairman Lamb, of the democratic national committee, after reading the New York world's allegations that James S. Sherman was connected with a big land scheme in New Mexico, today invited the vice presidential candidate to with draw from the republican ticket. Mr. Lamb characterized the story as "the most startling exposure of the campaign."

Amid a turbulent meeting, the Asiatic Exclusion League of San Francisco adopted a resolution reaffirming its nonpartisanship and leaving its members free to support which presidential candidate they choose. The squabble was precipitated by an attempt to have the league endorse Bryan and the democratic candidates for Congress. Congressmen Kahn and Hayes in bitter speeches opposed this course.

THE CAUSE OF COLDS.

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only properly fortify and strengthen their system, about 98 per cent of coughs, colds and pneumonia might be avoided. These troubles are simply the result of weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucuous membrane, which is as an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened, it becomes infected with germs which are carried through the system by the blood. These parasites attack and break these delicate tissues and set up a soreness which produce what is in reality an external scrofula.

The only thing that will cure coughs and colds and prevent pneumonia is a medication which is absorbed and carried by the blood so that the diseased membrane is disinfected, cleaned, soothed and healed.

We have a remedy which we honestly believe infallible and unsurpassable for the prevention and cure of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of 30 years of cures gained through the use of this medicine. We promise to either effect a cure in every case or make no charge for the medicine. We urge everybody in Alexandria who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Mucu-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not absolutely positive that we could substantiate our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why anyone should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Mucu-Tone, Prices 50c and $1.00. Sometimes a 50c bottle is sufficient for a cure. As a general thing, the most chronic case is cured with an average of three large bottles. Remember, the medicine will cost you nothing if you are not satisfied in every respect. W. P. JAPAN AND THE PHILIPPINES.

Marquis Katsura, prime minister of Japan, in an official statement Saturday set aside the contention so often heard in the United States that Japan looks with covetous eyes on the Philippines. "The American occupation of the Philippines is a benefit to civilization," the marquis declared, "and Japan is glad that America has so heroically set herself to the task of bringing the Filipinos to a higher state of civilization. Instead of seeking to embarrass the United States in her mission, Japan, will be ever ready to render whatever assistance is demanded of her.

POLICE CHIEF KILLED.

W. Belt Samuels, a former Danville saloonkeeper, on Saturday afternoon shot and instantly killed William B. Flannigan, chief of police of Draper, N. C., a town about 25 miles from Danville, in front of the home of Eva Boyd, a white woman. It is asserted that Samuels fired at Flannigan while his back was turned, and then shot two more times at his prostrate form. Samuels surrendered to the police explaining that he acted in self defense.

Flannigan came to the city Saturday trying to locate two runaway boys from Draper. Failing to find them he visited the Boyd woman, where he met Samuels. After a few words, according to the statement of the Boyd woman, Samuels drew a pistol. She says she attempted to wrest it from his hand, but failed to do so, and fearing for her own life, she fled. The two men then left the house and a few moments later she heard the shots. Samuels was convicted of perjury in connection with revenue fraud cases last spring, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The case is now pending before the court of appeals. Samuels has been out on $5,000 bond.

THE BYRD LAW.

As stated in Saturday's Gazette Judge T. W. Harrison, in the Circuit Court of Winchester, on Saturday, rendered a lengthy opinion in the Henry case, holding that section 23 1-2 of the Byrd liquor law, governing the sale of small brew or "near-beer," to be unconstitutional. Robert M. Henry, a former Winchester saloonkeeper, was arrested and fined $500 for selling "near-beer," manufactured by the Robert Porter Brewing Company of Alexandria, in less than six-bottle lots, as provided by section 23 1-2 of the Byrd law. An appeal was taken from the magistrate's court, and Judge Harrison's decision was awaited with interest all over the state. Judge Harrison said that in his opinion the Byrd liquor law was the very best law regulating the liquor traffic the state ever had and that he doesn't believe the people of the state would ever consent to a radical departure from its underlying principles. Section 23 1-2, as its history and every enumeration showed it, was an amendment injected into the act after it had passed the House of Delegates, without harmonising the other provisions of the bill with it, and that it was so constituted that it could serve no practical good purpose. The case will in all probability go to the Court of Appeals for a final decision.

CHURCH NOTES.

At the meeting for men, addressed by Mr. Robt. L. Downing, in the Methodist Protestant Church yesterday afternoon, there was wonderful interest manifested. About 300 listened to a strong and earnest message from the converted actor, and went away impressed with the heart-searching truth. Mr. H. L. Dinwiddie sang a solo, "Abide With Me." Mr. Downing also impressively sang, "He Will Hold Me Fast." The revival service began at 7:30 p. m. The church was filled with many standing in the vestibule throughout the service. The evangelist took as his subject, "A Great Privilege," and in plain practical truths sent the message into the hearts of his hearers. There were two conversions; and others who asked for prayers that light might be found. A deep interest was manifest. Tonight Mr. Downing will talk on "The Old Time Religion." Service promptly at 7:30.

The deceased was a lieutenant in the First Regiment of District of Columbia Volunteers and at the close of the civil war was provost marshal of this city, where he is unkindly remembered for his overbearing conduct towards the southern people and the returned Confederate soldiers before whom they were compelled to take the oath of allegiance. The deceased was 75 years old. The funeral took place this evening.

The latter denies the charge of having received the stolen property.

CONFEDERATE COIN.

In reference to the Confederate coin in the possession of a gentleman in this city, City Auditor Price has taken considerable interest and in response to a letter to Mr. Lawrence Washington, of the Library of Congress, in regard to the matter, has received the following reply:

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS,
Washington, Oct. 22, 1908.

My Dear Mr. Price:

Referring to the Confederate coin, I find the law suspending the operations of the mints was approved May 14, 1861 (see Journals Confederate Congress, vol. 1, page 223) and in Dye's Coin Encyclopedia, page 1150, you will find an article on Confederate coinage by E Mason, in which he quotes a letter from B. F. Taylor, C. S. A., who says "four pieces only were struck." This would seem to be conclusive, and yet a larger number seems to be in existence. I enclose some references copied from Schwab, which, if you have time to look up, might prove interesting.

LAWRENCE WASHINGTON.

After receiving this letter Auditor Price looked further into the matter and has this to say:

"In addition to this information Mr. J. R. Zimmerman has a 'History of the Confederate Treasury,' by Ernest A. Smith, Ph. D. He says in a foot note 'four coined half dollars were issued.' Reverse side, 13 stars and goddess of liberty. Obverse side, 7 stars, a liberty cap, stand of cotton, corn stalk, sugar corn, shield, and words, 'Confederate States of America.' This description is just what is on the half dollar held in this city."

WORKMEN ENTERTAINED.

Mr. James Roche on last Saturday night gave an oyster supper at Rammel's dining rooms to Contractor S. D. Devaughn, Mr. W. P. Husted, contractor for the brick work, and to the other mechanics who worked on the three modern brick houses owned by Mrs. James Roche on the east side of Alfred street, between Prince and Duke. During the evening speeches were made by Messrs. James Roche, S. D. Devaughn, W. P. Husted, Wm. O. Tomlin, Joseph Gates and others. The houses, which have already been rented, are fitted with all modern improvements and reflect credit upon the designer and the workmen who constructed them.

THE NEW BANK BUILDING.

Work on the new building for the First National Bank on the north side of King street, near Pitt, is now in an advanced stage. An additional force of bricklayers was put to work today. A slight interruption was occasioned last week by some stonemasons who quit work at the instance of a walking delegate from Washington. Their places were filled by other men.

RIVER NOTES.

The schooner Beulahland, from Severn river with sand for the Belle Pre Bottle Works, is at W. A. Smoot & Co's. wharf.

The schooner Hattie and Frances, from Coan river with canned goods for city merchants, has arrived.

YESTERDAY.

The weather yesterday was more like that of an April than an October day. The skies were overcast at times in the morning and about 2 o'clock in the evening a light shower fell, after which the clouds disappeared and the sun shone brightly. The churches were all fairly well attended and many people were on the street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather continues mild and fair. The mercury at noon today registered 73°.

The new chairs for the Opera House have been received and are being placed in position by Mr. A. D. Montier.

Complaint is made that vandals are destroying the flowers which are growing on the Columbus street side of the Fairfax apartment house.

Attention is called to the anniversary sale Thursday and Friday of S. H. Lynn & Co., shoe dealer, advertised in today's paper.

There was a large attendance at the rally day services in the Second Presbyterian Church last night. The interesting programmo which had been prepared was well-rendered.

Quite a heavy rain fell on Saturday night refreshing vegetation and laying the dust. The farmers in the neighborhood say the rain did much good but that more is needed.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a resident of Fairfax street, between Gibbon and Franklin, discovered a strange man prowling about his yard. While the man of the house was endeavoring to secure a pistol the intruder escaped.

The Alexandria Sunday Times got out a very creditable monument edition yesterday in the interest of the George Washington Monument Park. It gives an interesting history of the city and of its growth and industrial progress. It is well illustrated and reflects credit upon its publishers.

Joseph Bailey, colored, who lives in Washington, a deckhand on a tugboat, was caught between the side of the boat and a pile at this port yesterday afternoon and one of his legs was injured. Bailey was carried to the Alexandria Hospital, where it was said his injuries are not serious.

Robert Wood, colored, was arrested at Accotink this morning by Game Warden Payne charged with gunning on S. B. Stonnell's land without his permission. Justice Wright fined the accused $5.30.

Tomorrow is market day. Don't forget the "Auth Stand" and the Auth products. They're simply delicious. We are offering 3 cans Royal Red Tomatoes, 25c; 3 cans Cannon or Silver B and Peas 25c; 4 cans Sugar Corn, 2 c; Extra Fancy Peaches, 12c pound; Apricots, 17½c pound; Large Juicy Prunes, 8c pound. SAYS HE IS A DEFAULTER.

A young man who gave his name as Thomas J. Slowey, who says he lives in Philadelphia, was picked up in Alexandria county Saturday. Slowey's actions indicated that he was demented and a colored man named Stewart conducted him to the station house in this city, where he told the police that he was formerly employed by Muller & Steel flour merchants of Philadelphia, as a salesman, and that he embezzled between $400 and $600 from his employers and that detectives had since been on his track. Slowey is well dressed and at times talks in a very excited manner. He will be held until word is received from the chief of police in Philadelphia. Chief Goods forwarded a letter to the Philadelphia authorities, giving them information of the detention of the man and of his alleged admission.

The sister and brother-in-law of Slowey, who live in Washington, came here yesterday to see the prisoner. The latter is still being held at the station house.

AMUSEMENTS.

In speaking of motion picture houses and first class pictures it will be well to bear in mind that the Alexandria Amusement Company is a good place to visit tonight. The managers of this popular motion picture house are securing pleasing pictures and are repaid by crowded houses. Tonight "The Gambler's Fate," "How Rastus Got His Pork Chops," fine comedy; "Great International Cross Country," and "Great Bicycle Race" will be the attractions.

The Opera House management have provided one of the best shows of the season for its patrons tonight when they will present Frederick, Ely and Force in that side-splitting comedy entitled "Nigger in a Graveyard at Midnight," and three other big acts. Surpassing pictures and new songs.

The Elite Picture Company will give an entire new show tonight. "Heart of a Gypsy Maid." This is a fine subject fresh from New York; it is an amusing, well produced picture with good photographic effects. "The Result of Eating Horse Flesh;" this is amusing; see the man turn to a horse. "Mr. Boozer Gets a Fright;" this will make you laugh. "A Magnetic Removal," another good reel. Special attraction will be Frank Steele, the rube comedian who comes highly recommended. Show starts 7.15.

STATION SITE

Corporation Counsel Thomas of Washington, has begun proceedings to determine the right of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. to refuse to select another site than that at Fourteenth and Water streets northwest for the railroad substation in that city.

SAYS HE WAS KIDNAPPED.

Robert H. Burchell, jr., nineteen years old, who says his home is in Brooklyn, went to the station house yesterday and told Chief Goods that he had been kidnapped by two men and carried from his home to Washington and later to Richmond. The men, he says, took from him a ring valued at $10. When in Richmond, the men, he asserts, wanted him to rob stores. He escaped from his captors and made his way to this city. After eating a hearty meal the youth left the station house and started for Washington.

Burchell went to police headquarters in Washington today and repeated substantially the same story he told the police of this city.

KILLED BY ELECTRIC CAR.

Arthur Berry, colored 25 years, old, whose home was at Johnsons Hill, near Arlington, Alexandria county, was struck and killed by an electric car a short distance north of Arlington Junction last Saturday night. The body was discovered yesterday morning after it had lain in the rain and mud during the night. Dr. J. D. Ashton, the county coroner, summoned a jury, which viewed the body where it had fallen between the railway tracks. The jury then adjourned, subject to the coroner's call. Later an undertaker removed the body to the home of the deceased.

NEW CODFISH and BONED SMOKED HERRING just received by J. C. MILBURN

Alexandria Gazette.
MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 26, 1908.

They're All Like This.

"A wife is a rib," said one little girl.

"Wives are guiding stars," said another.

"A comforter," said a third.

"An inspiration," said a fourth.

Altogether the definitions were rather prosy and commonplace, but finally a child of eleven, smiling archly, said:

"A wife is a person for a man to find fault with when things go wrong."

"Good!" cried the pretty teacher, laughing. "Good! That is the best definition of all, the best, the truest!"

But that afternoon on the way home from school the little girl whose definition had so pleased tripped demurely up to the teacher and said:

"Are you going to marry that tall, handsome young man I see you with nearly every night?"

"Yes," said the teacher.

"Well, then, if my definition of a wife was true"—

"Ah, but, dear, with us nothing will ever go wrong. He says so himself."

The Horse's Power of Smell.

The horse will leave musty hay untouched in his bin, however hungry. He will not drink of water objectionable to his questioning sniff or from a bucket which some odor makes offensive, however thirsty. His intelligent nostril will widen, quiver and query over the daintiest bit offered by the fairest of hands, with coaxings that would make a mortal shut his eyes and swallow a nauseous mouthful at a gulp. A mare is never satisfied by either sight or whinny that her colt is really her own until she has a certain nasal certificate to the fact. A blind horse, now living, will not allow the approach of any stranger without showing signs of anger not safely to be disregarded. The distinction is evidently made by his sense of smell and at a considerable distance. Blind horses, as a rule, will gallop wildly about a pasture without striking the surrounding fence. The sense of smell informs them of its proximity.—Horse and Stable.

Deceivers.

There is an old fellow who lives in a "dry" New England town who has a very poor opinion of New York, to which metropolis he recently made a visit. It may be remarked in passing that the old gentleman is one of the pillars of the church in his native village. Upon his return home he sat for some time upon a sugar barrel at the grocery and then suddenly burst out:

"Them fellers down to New York is as bad as thieves! Cheat your eyeteeth out 'fore you know it!"

"Gosh, Hiram! You don't mean to say you got bunkoed at your age?" the storekeeper demanded, dropping the nail tongs.

"Yes, I did, too!" was the angry reply. "I went to a sody water fountain an' asked the feller for his best sarsyprilla, an' I give him the regular wink."

"Well?" the storekeeper demanded.

"Well, by heck, I got it!" was the disgusted reply.

Sharks and Divers.

Contrary to what is generally supposed, the fully equipped modern diver does not dread sharks in the depths, though there are cases on record where these monsters have bitten savagely at the air pipe, causing a serious leak and almost drowning the man before he could be hauled up. Sharks are, however, notoriously timid, and all the experienced diver has to do to frighten them away is to open one of the air valves in his dress and cause a stream of bubbles to rise up all around him, whereupon the "tiger of the deep" will make off in abject terror. A far more real danger is getting entangled.—St. Nicholas.

A Mixup.

The householder smothered his wrath and descended to the basement.

"Are you the plumber?" he asked of the grimy looking individual who was tinkering with the pipes in the cellar.

"Yes, guv'nor," answered the man.

"Been long in the trade?"

"'Bout a year, guv'nor."

"Ever make mistakes?"

"Bless yer, no, guv'nor!"

"Oh, then, I suppose it's all right! I imagined you had connected up the wrong pipes, for the chandelier in the drawing room is spraying like a fountain, and the bathroom tap's on fire!"—London Answers.

The Wrong Girl.

After a whole year of married bliss a young man named Hahn, living at Volosca, Dalmatia, discovered that he had not married the girl he intended. When he proposed to her he mistook her for her twin sister, who so resembles her that they can scarcely be distinguished, and he did not realize his error until he began calling her by her Christian name instead of by the terms of endearment he had hitherto used.

Overlooked.

"I always distrust your judgment for some reason or other, John."

"Yes, and you have reason to. It serves me right"

"Why, I cannot remember you ever having done anything to justify such a distrust."

"Have you forgotten that I married you?"—Houston Post.

Explosive.

An ambitious young writer having asked, "What magazine will give me the highest position quickest?" was told, "A powder magazine, if you contribute a fiery article."

Why
Is it that there is an occasional howl about the poor quality of goods sold by firms? The reason is that such business houses have no future and want to "get theirs," no matter what the purchasers receive.

Our Motto
Is to recommend to you something we can guarantee and sell to you, whether you live in the city or country, exactly what we SHOW YOU.

Some One
Has said that we were not particular about the trade of Alexandria city, and we want the people here to know that such statement is absolutely false.

A Business Man
Would be an idiot to come to a city, invest money in heavy expenses, including taxes and other things, and then even intimate such a statement as this.

We Desire Your Trade
In Liquors and to that end we intend to publish every week our lines of goods and invite you to call and look them over.

Men Who Judge Our Liquors
merely from our display can form no idea of the fine flavor and the rich bouquet of the contents of the bottles. It isn't the pretty label or the catch brand name that makes our wines and liquors so good. It is their purity, their natural ageing and careful bottling. Try a bottle. It's as good as it looks.

You can sit back at your ease and feel confident that no one has a finer looking carriage than yours. Give us a call and we will prove it, and our prices won't scare you either.
